Dear Eagles,

Well, here it is! Finally, after 7 months of hard work, copy-writing, picture taking, deadlines, and one final rush to meet the last big deadline, it's finished.

This year's 77-78 annual features a new cover design and the theme "The Way We Were". We have tried to select pictures, both candid and others, that will fit this theme so that in years to come, when you look back and remember, it will be a meaningful experience.

We elected a spring delivery date, so the seniors took their graduation pictures, in caps and gowns, and once again the senior section is in color.

It's been a hectic year, but we think we've captured it's essence. So turn the page and remember,

"The Way We Were".

Sincerely,

The Conquistador Staff

'77-'78 El Conquistador Staff

Senior Lee Ann Tyra edited this year's "El Conquistador" and assigned all sections to be completed by a late February deadline. Assisting her and making sure all those assignments got under way is Senior Sylvia Beltran. Ray Thompson and Bonnie Mendoza handled all the advertising. Photography, darkroom duties and developing all those photos is taken care of by Carolyn McDaniel, Don Howard, Geogre Smith and Gabriel Carasco. Sponsoring the yearbook staff is Mr. Joel Thurman. Classes were tackled by Caryn Guarjardo and Dolores Perez, both Juniors. Patti Brewster, outside of remodeling her bedroom found time to do a great job on the faculty section. Delma Fernandez organized the activities.

The Journalism staff attended a workshop at Taylor Publishing and received several new ideas for this year's book. We have spent many long hours putting this book together and we hope you enjoy it. Lee Ann decided on a spring delivery date so therefor several activities had to be excluded. Mr. Thurman's a thousand and one faces kept the class going on those rough times.

In these years we've learned about life — the sorrow and the joy, the love for one another and the pain of defeat. Now those years are gone and we know we can never return to the way we were.

The Ball swayed to the sounds of "Macho" and Cadets and invited guests took full advantage of the moment and enjoyed themselves in style. Eagle Hopes Are High as Fifteen Vets Return to Do Battle

The first test for the '77 edition of the orange machine came in pre-season play when our Eagles locked horns with Cathedral and battled them to a tie. Tougher pre-season competition was next on the list, as our birds dropped a scrimmage decision to the Austin J.V. squad. This year, the Eagles returned fifteen lettermen to the ranks and hopes were high for a more than successful season, as last year's team showed championship capabilities in a re-building year. The '77 season also marked the coming of a new coaching staff (the third in three years) headed by Mr. Jessie Cordero.

Below left, Armando Alderete is seen grabbing a fellow Eagle's ankles and making him sweat in an early Eagle practice session. At bottom left, number 14 Elias Munoz tenses for the play to come his way during the Silver City opener. At right, fullback John Lopez is churning through the S.C. defense.

Silver City Opener Stops Hearts and Spoils Inauguration

The '77 season opener was a heart stopper for Eagle fans who gathered in the new Canutillo stadium anxious to enjoy an inaugural victory. Silver City had come to town and by half time they were on the short end of the scoring stick; the board read 18 to 6 in favor of the Eagles. The second half put Eagle partisans in Cardiac Country as S.C. roared back to win the tilt in the last minutes of the game and come out 20 to 18 victors. Senior John Lopez garnered the distinction of scoring the first touchdown in our brand new stadium.

Starting quarterback Oscar Carrasco, below, gets ready to take the hike while below him Junior defensive man Juan Marmalejo can be seen putting the brakes on the competition.

Canutillo Evens It Up With T. Or C. but Drops One to Tulie.

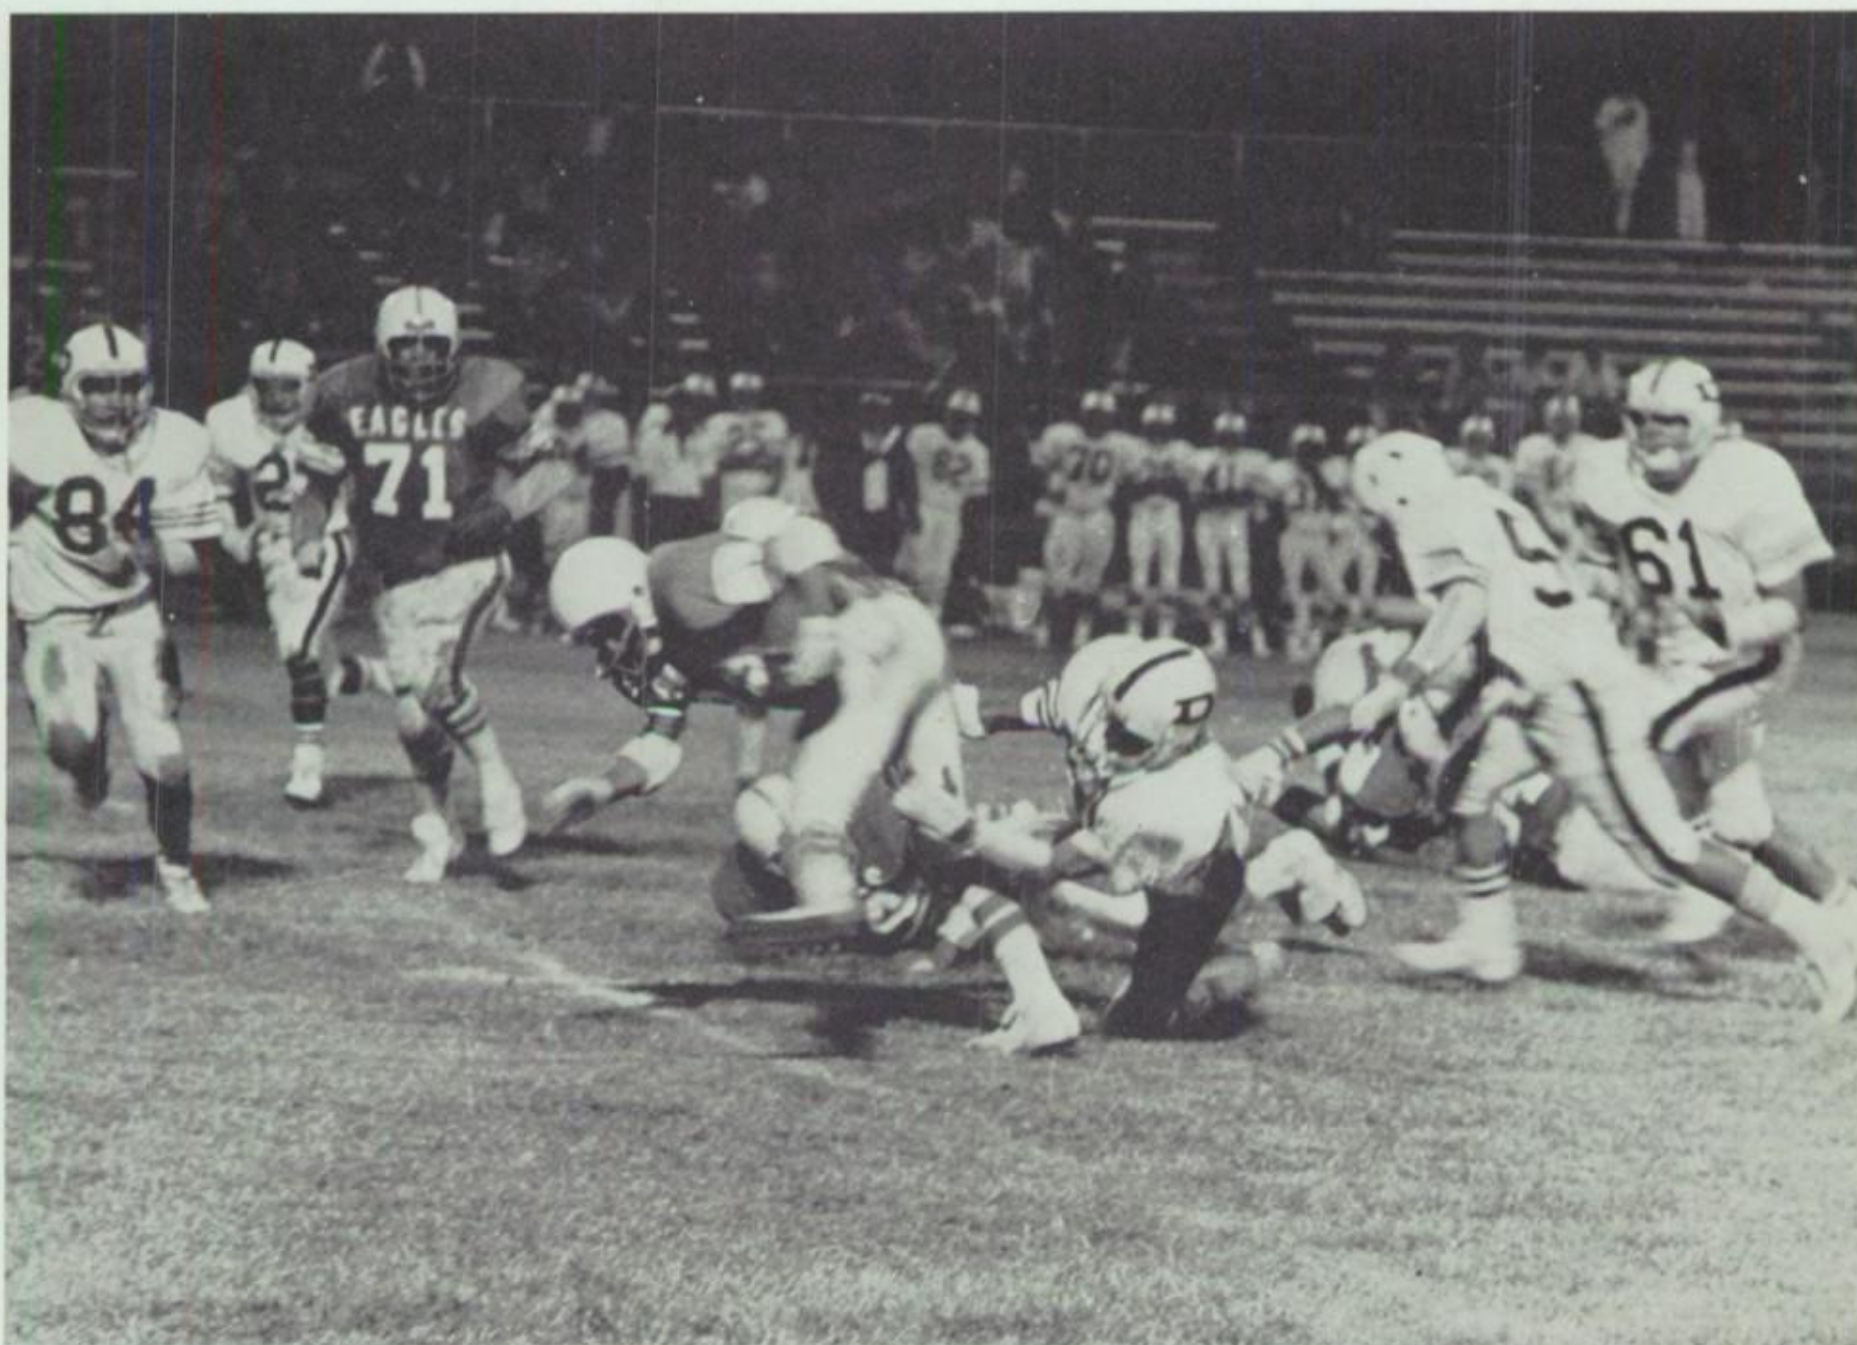

T. or C. gave the Eagles a chance to even up the season and the Orangemen trounced the visitors, with no questions asked, by an 18 to 0 margin. The third seasonal tilt found Canutillo journeying to Tularosa to Cace the perennially tough Tulie Wildcats who sported a number four State ranking. The game was a disappointment for Canutillo Country as we succumbed to a 34 to 18 drubbing. Eagle fans, however, did get the chance to observe a bright spot as comer Ruben Ganzalez scampered for a 94 yard T.D. run.

Gonzales Begins His Push to a Record Breaking Season

On the opposite page, John Lopez goes left and clears the way for a fellow running back.

Los Lunas was easy prey for the Eagles, and that fourth seasonal game saw Canutillo trouncing the Tigers with a lopsided 41 to 14 victory. At this stage in the season, the Eagles are again even up in the record books with a 2 win 2 loss balance sheet. The scene is then set for the all important Gadsden game.

Midway Through the Season the Orange and White

The upper valley championship was again the topic of dispute at the half-way mark in the Eagle season. In '76 Gadsden had beaten the Eagles in a last moment bomb and T.D. which left Eagle aficionados in shock and muttering, "wait til next year." In the '77 tilt, nerves were wound up tight as the Panthers and the Eagles battled to a scoreless first quarter. At halftime, the Eagles jogged into the locker room with a slim 8 to 7 edge.

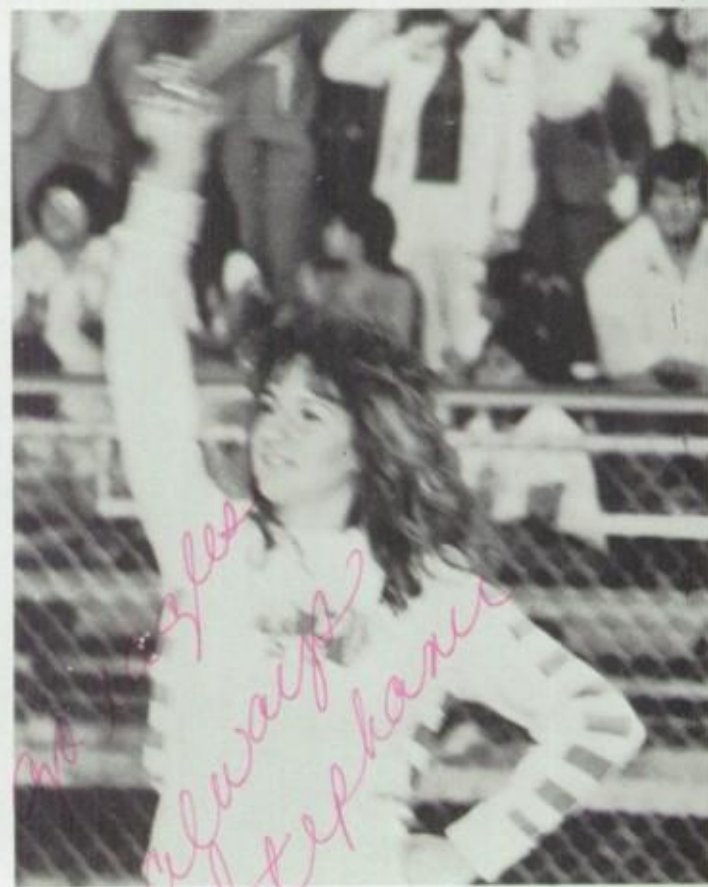

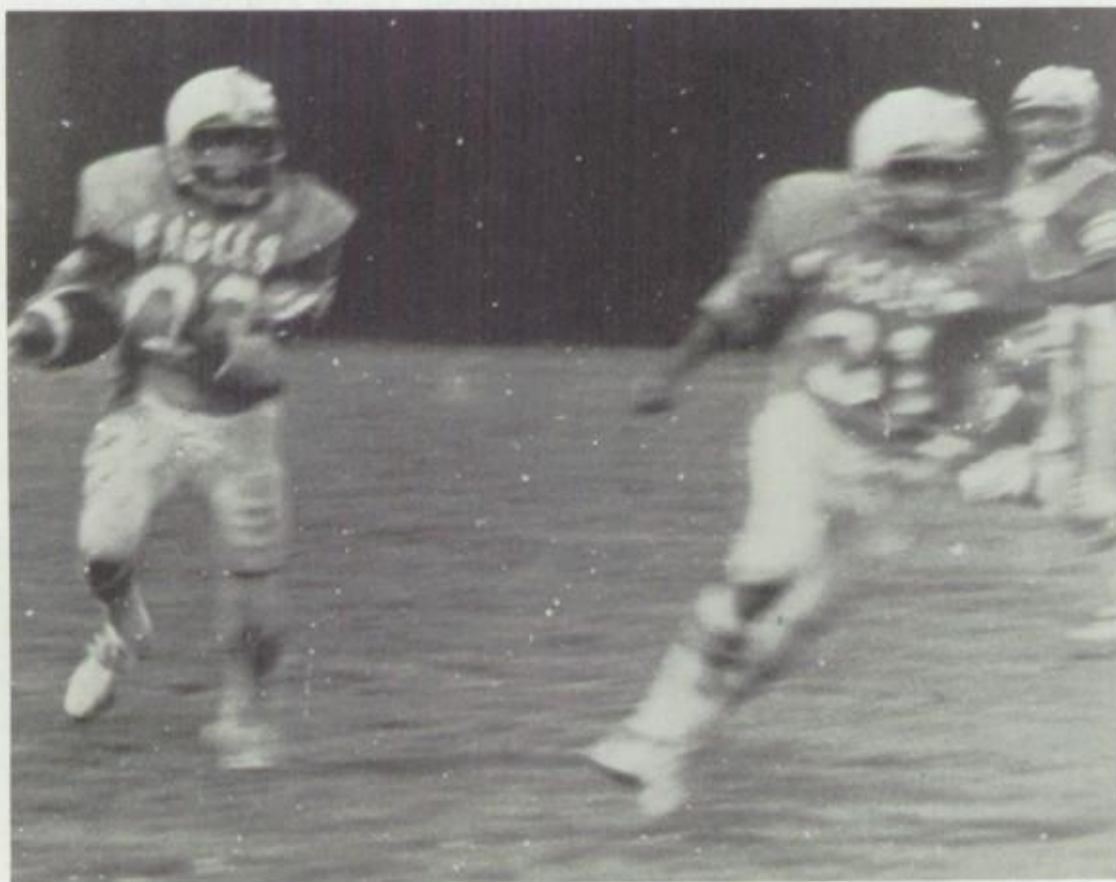

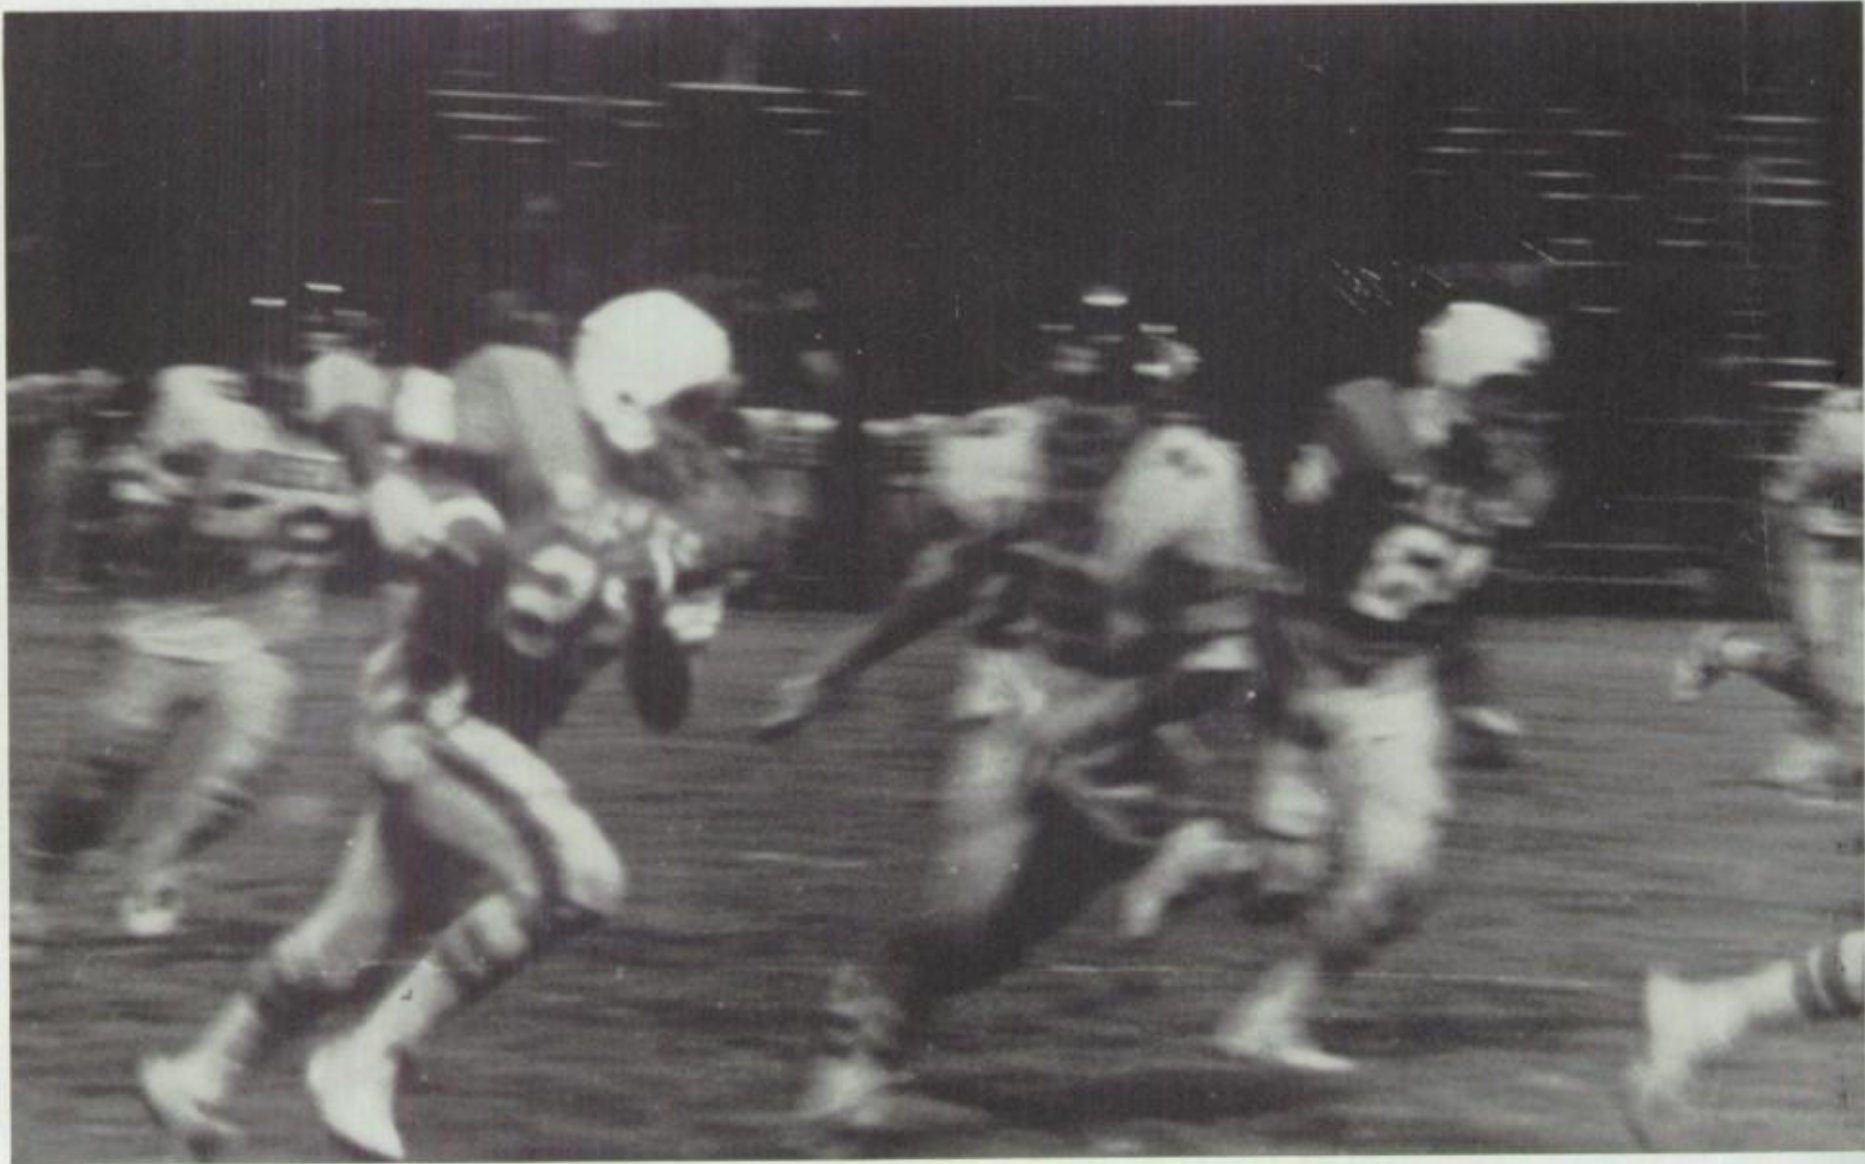

Captures the Upper Valley Crown by Beating Gadsden

The Panthers roared out the third quarter and scored a quick T.D. but missed the extra point. That score went unanswered until the Eagles gathered in a crucial fumble and drove for the game winning score. Final result — a 14 to 13 Eagle victory and the valley championship assured for a year. On the opposite page left can be seen a "just out of reach" pass for Senior End Oscar Hernandez. Next to that, Ruben is seen making a rare fumble. Below, outstanding back Ruben Gonzlez whizzes through the line and tough Soph. Bobby Terrell drags down a Deming runner.

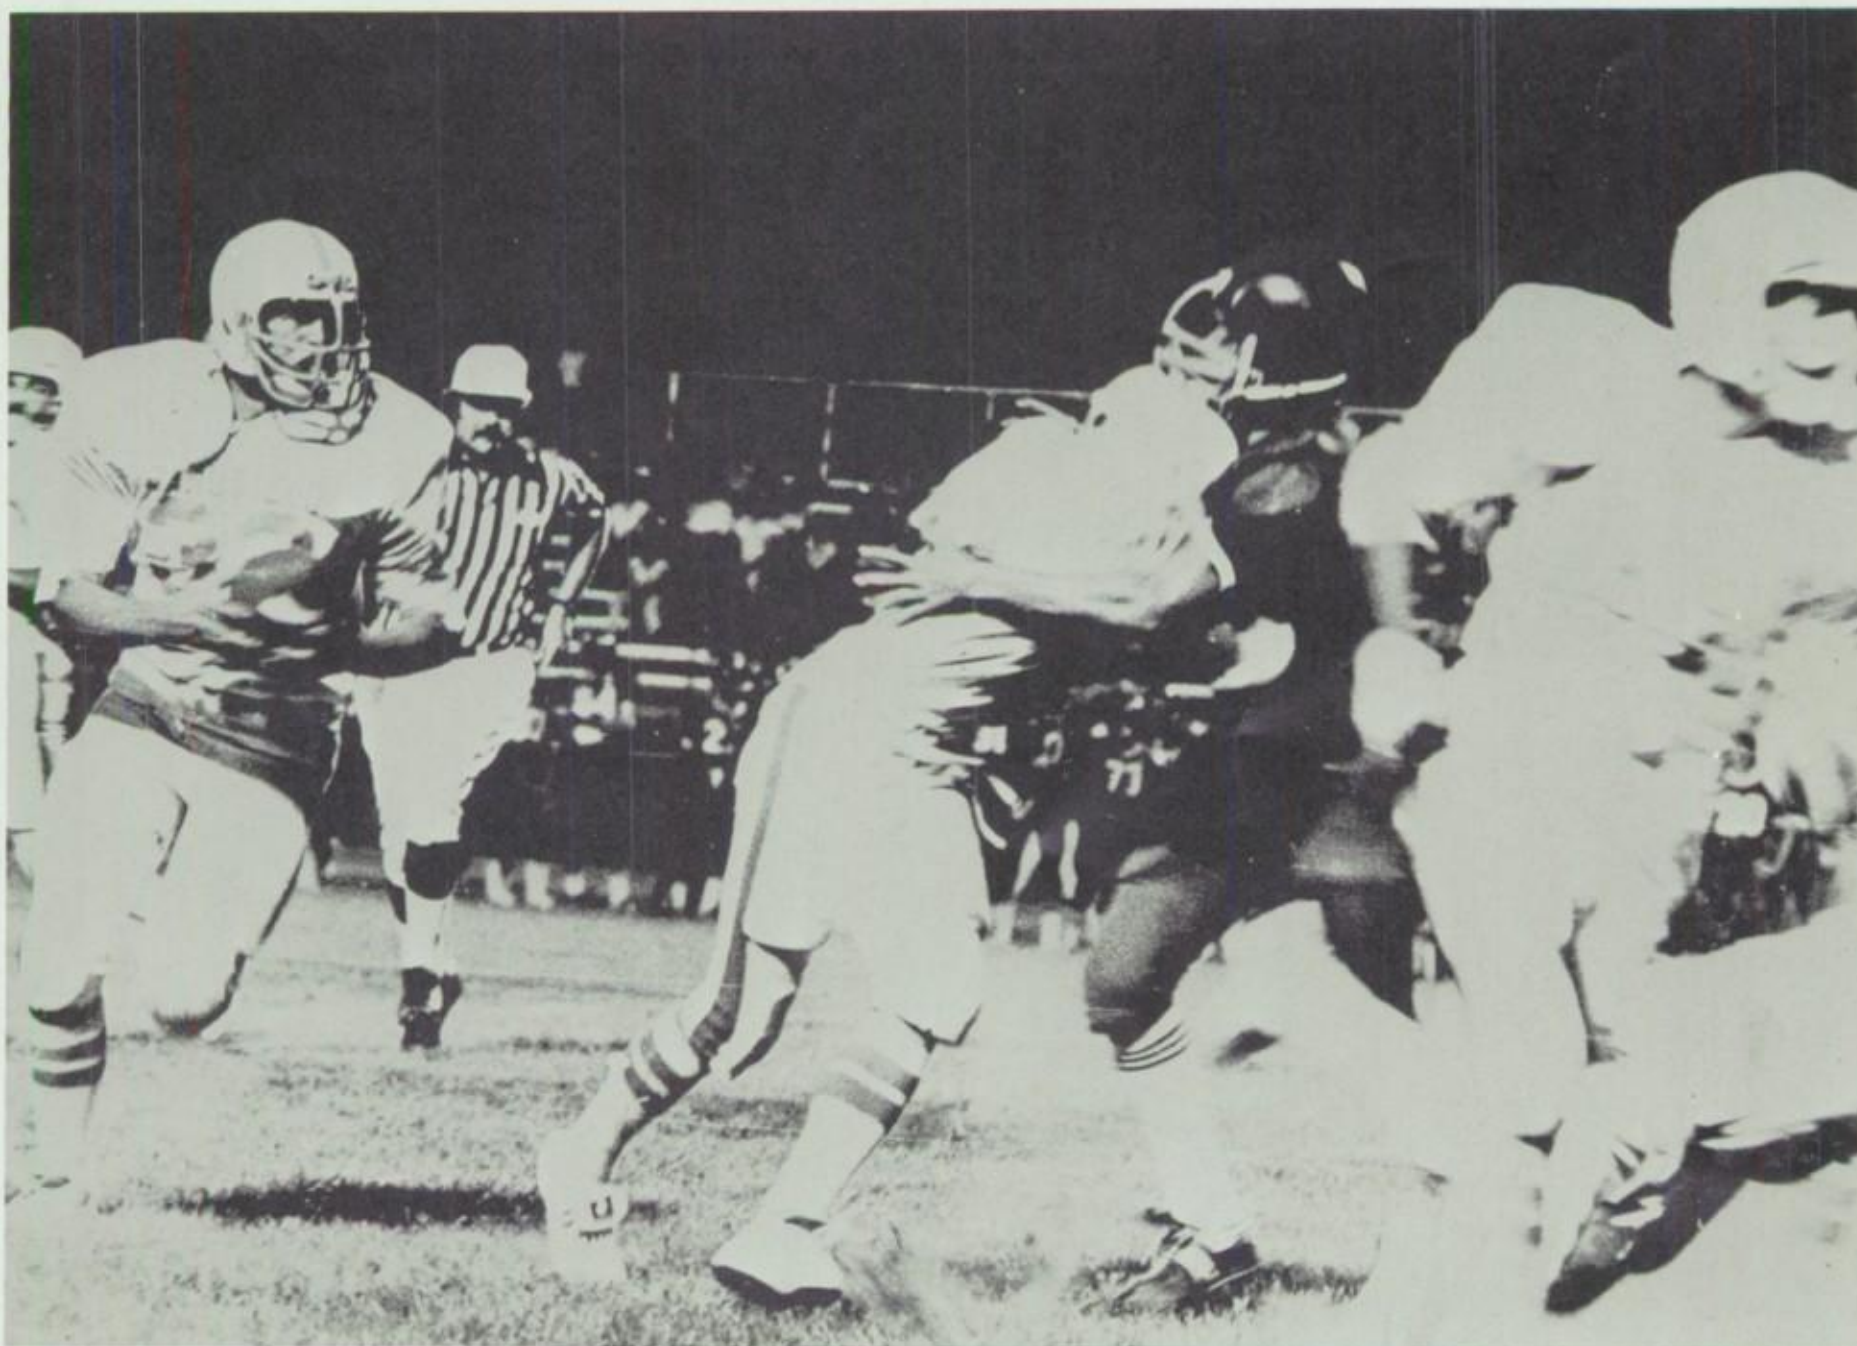

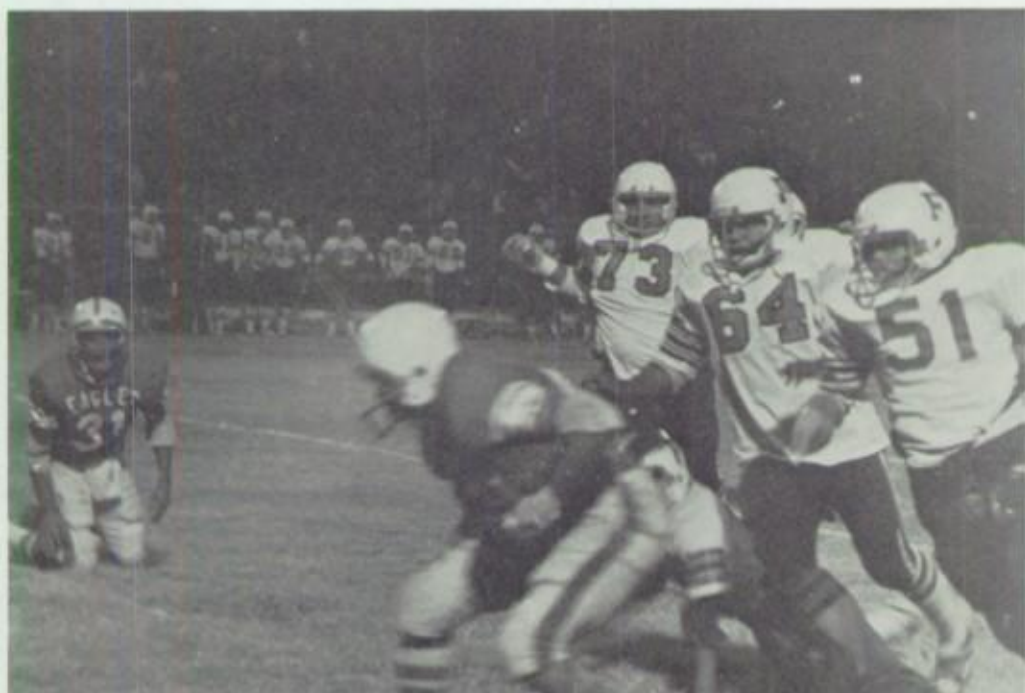

Homecoming Comes and the Eagles Victimize Deming

The next week found Canutillo traveling to Cobre and spoiling the Indians' Homecoming by scalping them with 36 to 6 final score. Meanwhile, Ruben Gonzalez keeps piling on the rushing yardage and begins to get the attention of fans everywhere. Ruben can be seen below outrunning a Gadsden defender and, in the companion picture, John Lopez leads Ruben around end for another big gainer. Cheerleader Stephnie Fraidenberg likes what she sees, below right, as she yells the Orange team on at Gadsden.

no longer always Stephnie

In one of the best Homecoming weeks in memory, the Eagles ended the nostalgic celebrations by whipping the Deming Wildcats with an impressive 44 to 14 score. At this point in the season, the Orangemen were riding high with a streak of victories under their belts and only District competition was left. And Eagle District chances looked brighter than they had in a long time. At the bottom, it's Ruben around end again and the good Eagle blocking is pictured to show just how Ruben did it this year. At right, Senior Eileen Toti pauses to catch the action and to her left, Bobby Terrell is about to be greeted by a group of Fabens defenders.

District Play Is an 'Instant Replay' of Last Year

Alpine was looking to repeat as District Champs for the seventh year in a row when the Eagles rolled in to Buck country for the first District contest. Alpine wasn't to get its expected championship, but the Eagles couldn't overcome the jinx and fell by a 7 to 0 final score. Socorro, the next District foe was completely overcome by the Eagle offense — suffering a 28 to 8 drubbing at the hands of the Orange Machine. Fabens, meanwhile, had defeated both Alpine and Socorro and was hungry for a District Crown.

There remained, for Fabens, only the stubborn Eagles in the way of a championship. If the Eagles could gain a victory, it would throw the race into a three way tie with a flip of the coin to be the deciding factor. As large as the games loomed for the Eagles, the Orange team was unable to achieve its upset hopes and fell victim to the Wildcats by a 14 to 7 margin. The '77 Eagle campaign ended with the Eagles compiling a 6 and 4 season record and a third place in District. On page 66, John Lopez bulls over for a first and ten and at the right, Senior quarterback Oscar Carrasco escapes a close call. The tension can be seen in the faces of Eagle fans, as the Canutillo-Fabens clash unfolds.

Volleyballers Still Looking for Championship

While the football season was unfolding, volleyball took center stage for the girls and this year's Eagle spikers entered into play with District hopes. Pre-district competition proved to be tough, as the girls took on the likes of Parkland, L.P.I. and Bel Air to gain experience for the upcoming fight for the crown. A tie for third was the best that the Orange court women could manage this season; but, Susan Robinson and Letty Castañon did score for our side by achieving All-District honors.

The Eagle Varsity V-Ball team huddles up, page 67 top left, before the Fabens match. Senior Lee Ann Tyra yells encouragement from the back of the huddle as Sylvia Beltran and Lilia Padilla in the foreground begin to take the court. The starting six included — front line, Lee Ann Tyra, Letty Castanon, and Sylvia Beltran. In the back line, Lily Padilla, Sylvia Ramirez, and Susan Robinson guarded the back line. Below, Lee Ann, at left, can be seen returning a spike while Letty looks anxiously on. In the center, Lily Padilla goes up into the air in hopes of setting up a point. To the right — Susan Robinson delivers a game opening serve. At the bottom of the page, Susan sets up to belt the ball and to her right, Sylvia Ramirez is a study of anticipation as she awaits a serve.

B-Teamers Show Promise for Future Net Gains

B-team Volleyballers gathered around a new coach and a 13 game schedule this year to tally a successful season. Fledgling coach Adela Gurule relieved Coach Willie Tinnin of the B-squad chores and prepped her charges for Varsity duty next year. This year's squad piled up 8 victories. Below, Celia Ruiz glances over at the competition from the pre-game huddle. Under the huddle picture, front liner Aurora Chacon looks on while an Eagle teammate sets up to spike. Below right, Lupe Quintana serves a rocket.

Varsity and B-Team V-Ball Is Fast and Interesting

Golfers Slice Their Way Through Spring Sports

The 1977-'78 edition of the Eagle Golf Squad is six duffers strong with two returning veterans. Seniors Elias Munoz and Sergio Coronado are in their second year of links action and added much needed experience to the Canutillo squad. Joining the two Senior vets are Andy Najar, Fernie Gomez, Pablo Cereceres, and Arturo Duran. The C.H.S. golfers test their shots at the Santa Teresa course in the afternoon. Mr. A. Chavez is this year's coach.

Eagle Basketball Opens With Hopes for a Repeat

When roundball rolled around to Eagleland, expectations were for a repeat of the successful '76-'77 season when C.H.S. attained a long awaited District Co-Championship. Coach Bill Newcomer's hardwood boys had lost, through graduation, only two starters from the championship team. Immediately below is the 1977-78 edition of the Canutillo Varsity Basketball team. Going from left to right are assistant coach Mr. L. Rubio, Jose Garcia, Sergio Ramos, Oscar Carrasco, Jose Damian, Fernando Gomez, Ruben Gonzales, Oscar Hernandez and Bobby Lopez (standing). Front row kneeling are Jose Milian, Luis Perez, Arturo Lozano, Fernando Escobar, Charlie Chacon and Head Coach Bill Newcomer. On the same page, Oscar Hernandez goes high to stuff in two points (with the help of a ladder!)

Tury Lozano is caught in the middle of three dark shirted opponents in a wild scramble for the ball. Below that, Tury soars high for a shot while potential rebounder Oscar Hernandez looks on. Oscar was this season's high point man, averaging ten buckets a game.

Early Play Serves to Toughen Team for Later Contests

In the early season going the squad made a good showing and gained valuable game experience for the upcoming District battles. Matches against the likes of Coronado, El Paso High and Bel Air toughened the team mentally — even though they suffered losses. Immediately below, Bobby Lopez tangles hands with rival at the center jump — Bobby was the Eagles' tallest man at 6'2". Tury Lozano and Jose Damian box in a rival guard and below left, Oscar Hernandez fires a shot over the finger tips of a defender.

Jose Damian, below, seems to be giving his shot the "OK" sign as he hangs in the air momentarily to see if he nailed two points. At bottom left, Bobby Lopez sends his shot on the way in first quarter action against the Eastwood J.V. To the bottom right, Bobby shows us how to foul "Eagle style," as he reaches over an Eastwood J.V.'er for a rebound.

Pre-District play continued at a hectic pace; the Eagles took part in five tournaments and countless single confrontations. District rival Socorro and Fabens got a shot at the Eagles in a few tournaments, but nothing decisive was settled by these games. It was still "wait and see" as District approached.

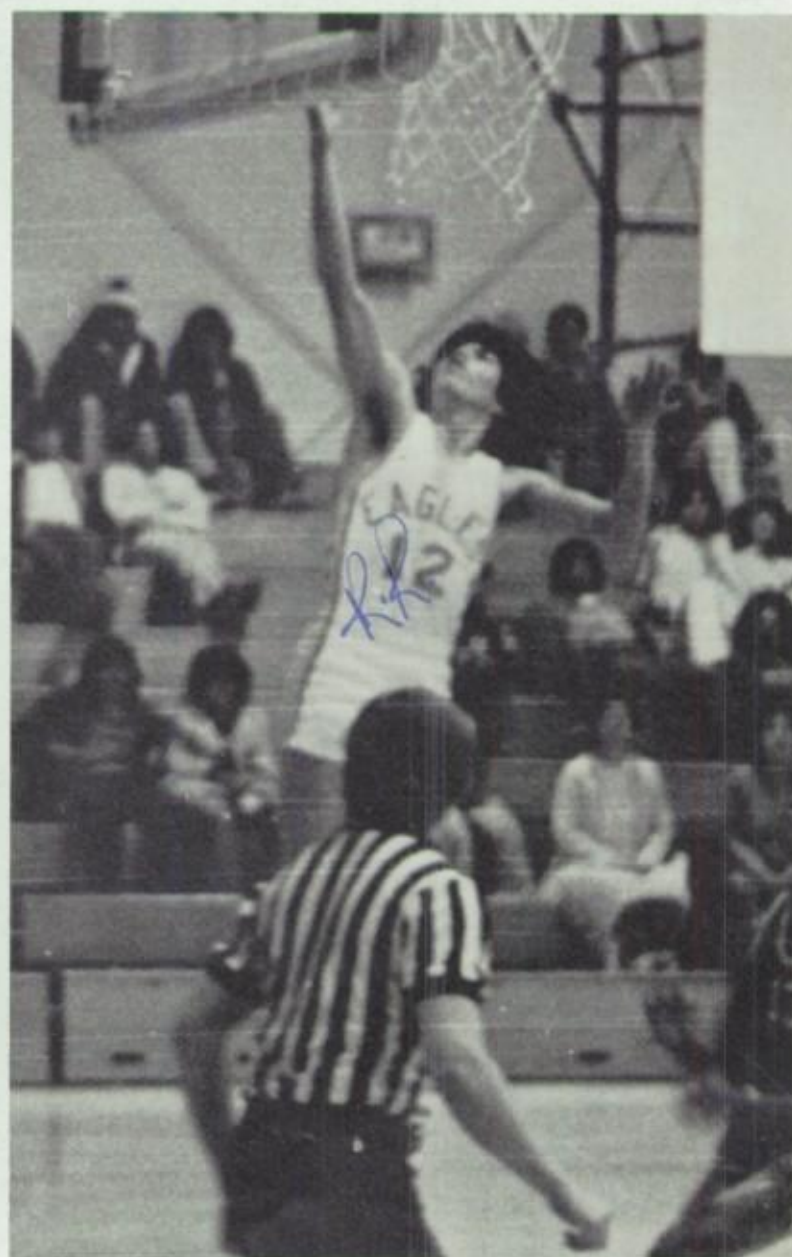

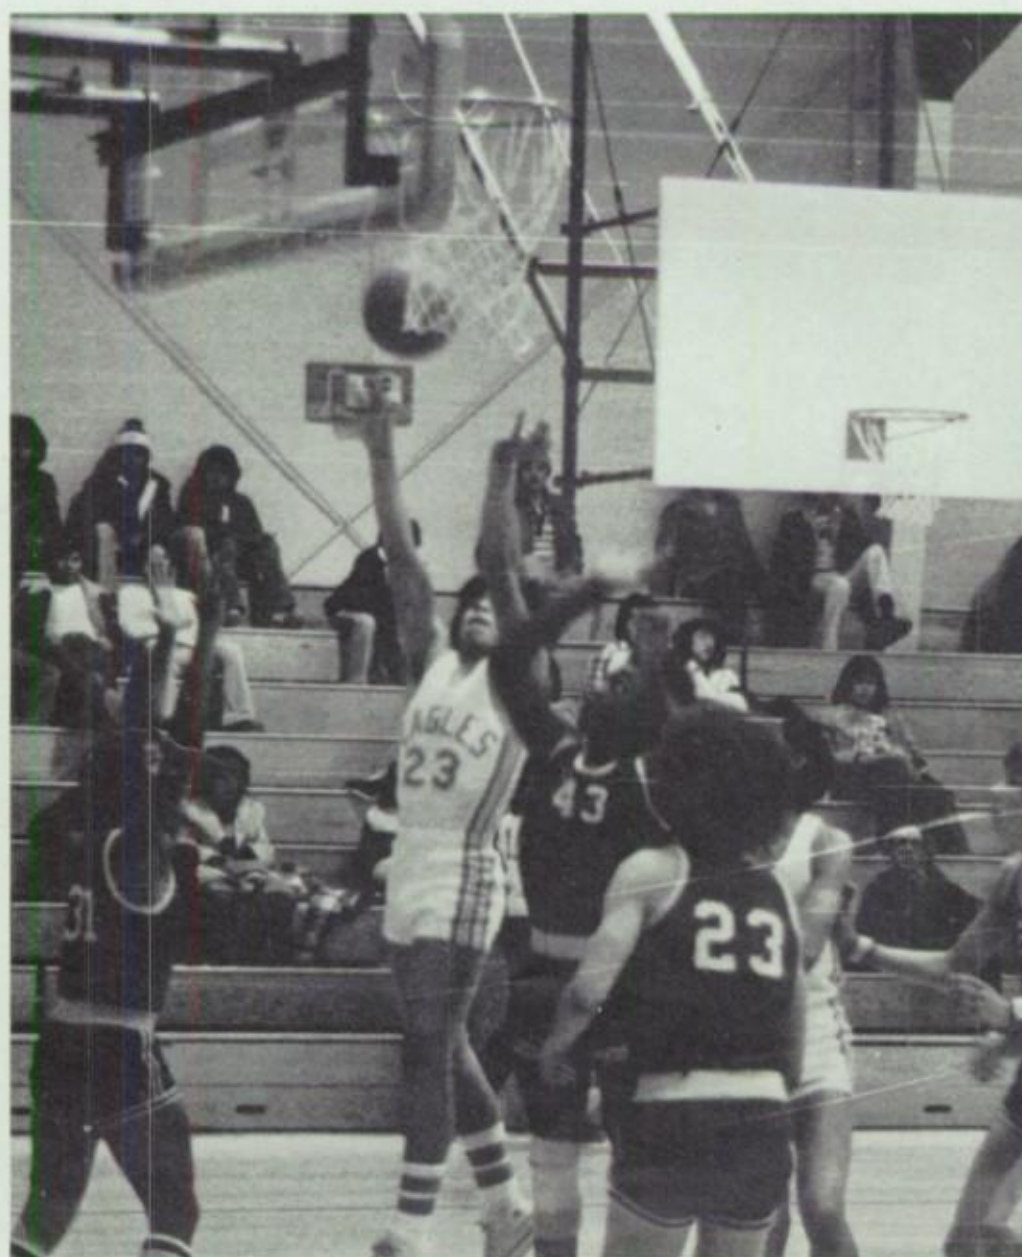

District Wars Begin, Championship Repeat at Stake

In the first District game, Alpine journeyed to Eagleland and fell victim to the Eagle hustle and sharpshooting. Below, some eagle team members celebrate the victory. At bottom left, Bobby Lopez soars for the tip and Tury and Oscar watch to see which way the ball will bounce. Fabens was next on the District list and the Wildcats out-pointed the Eagles, leaving C.H.S. at a one and one mark and looking forward to Socorro.

The Socorro Bulldogs shared the '76-'77 Co-District Championship honors with the Eagles and would prove to be the team to beat if C.H.S. hoped to repeat as a champion. In the first tilt with Socorro, the Eagles came off their loss to Fabens and outgunned the hungry Bulldogs. This left the District race (after the first round) entangled in a three way tie, with Alpine on the losing end of the figuring. Canutillo, Socorro and Fabens would be the principals in the championship run and all three teams were anxious to get the matter settled.

District Ties Up, Eagles Share Title

In the second round of District competition, the Eagles drew a slight breather and beat Alpine handily at Alpine. This left spoiler Fabens to knock off for the Eagles and the Orange and White spirit was running high when the squad loaded up the bus for the trip to Fabens. The Eagles huddle up in a close-knit group, below, right before the crucial Fabens tilt. At bottom right, the roundball is captured just slipping in for a two pointer.

At Fabens, the Eagles broke the Wildcat jinx and knocked off the eager Cats in a hard-fought close contest. All that stood in the way of a clear championship was for the Eagles to repeat its winning ways against Socorro, a team that fell victim to the Orange and White onslaught in the first round. But, this was not to be; Socorro turned red hot and put themselves in a District Co-Championship position with the Eagles. Unfortunately the Eagles could not pull off a victory over the bulldogs in the district playoff and lost 62-46.

Early Season Showing Boosts Girls' District Chances

A returning veteran crew of Eagle roundballers sent hopes high as Coach Willie Tinnin and her charges began the yearly girls' basketball wars. Pre-district play saw our hoopsters compiling a winning edge and sharpening up their skills for the coming District action. Below left, top row are Varsity players Susan Robinson, Lee Ann Tyra, Sylvia Beltran, Christi Garcia, Dolores Perez, Yolanda Marquez and (sister) Linda Marquez. Bottom Row; Sylvia Ramirez, Lily Padilla, Olga Orrantia, Helen Rivera, Geraldine Montoya and Letty Castanon.

Our Varsity District played its last year of six-gal basketball this year and next year it will be full court for girl roundballers. Geraldine Montoya, top left, stretches to get the ball closer in to the hoop and a possible 2 points. Starting with Geraldine, most of the season, was Senior Lily Padilla and Soph. Christi Garcia. Alongside right, Senior Sylvia Beltran leaps to block an opponent's shot while fellow defensive player Letty Castanon also takes a swipe at the action. Assisting on defense were stalwarts Sylvia Ramirez, Lee Ann Tyra and Susan Robinson.

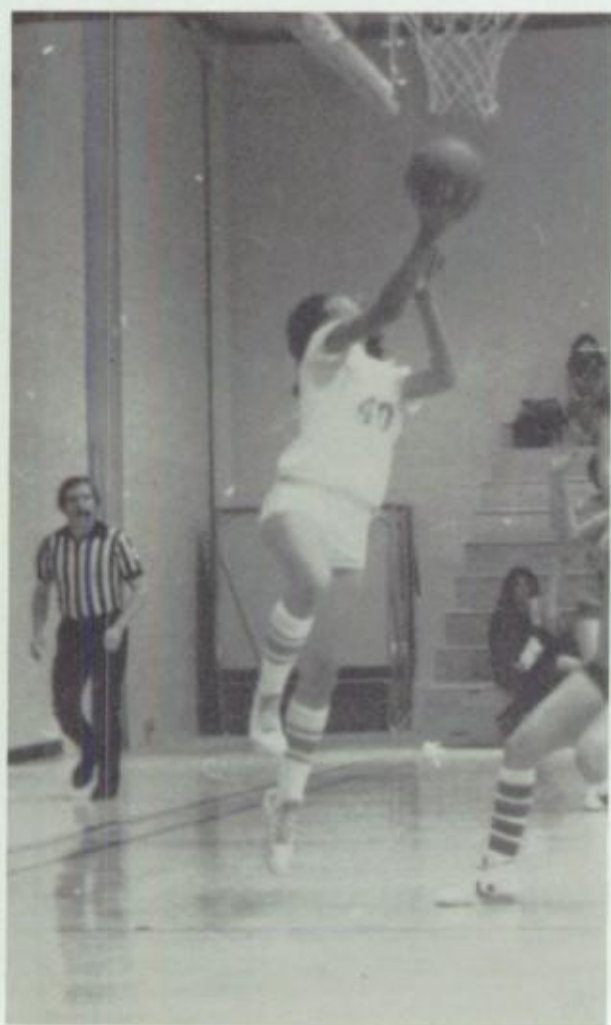

District Going Is Rough as Eagle Hopes Fade

Girls Basketball action, Canutillo style, is fast and furious and things can get rough under the basket. At far right, Lee Ann and Sylvia out power a would-be rebounder and get the ball for the offense. At left, Olga Orrantia leans into a shooter, making a 2 point attempt double tough. Linda Marquez on offense, at left at the bottom of the page, goes under and up to get a sure shot. In the center, Lily struggles with two defenders for a rebound; watch those elbows! On offense at right, Christi has just shot and she anxiously awaits the outcome of her efforts.

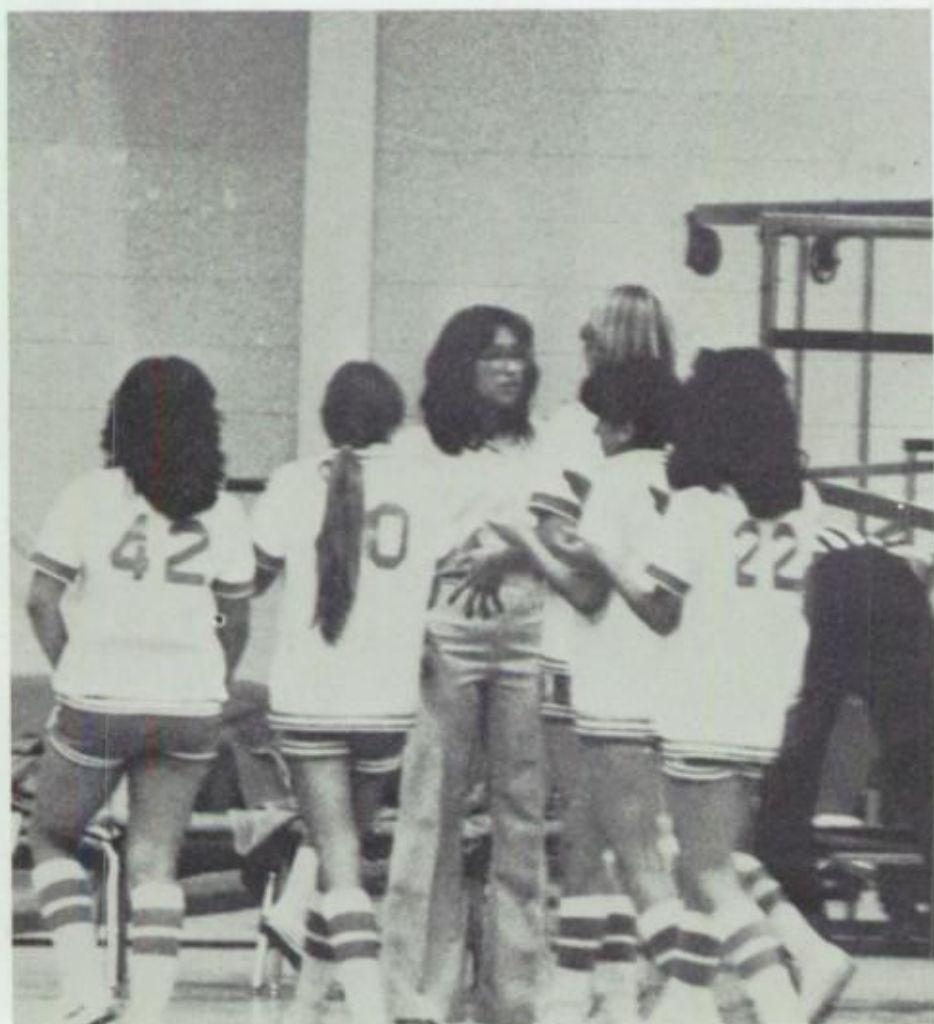

Eagle B-Teamers Make the Move to Five-Gal Basketball

Girls' B-team action this year was hot and heavy and full court, a first for Eagle girls and the B-teamers introduced this style of play in preparation for next year's Varsity season. Starters this year included Celia Ruiz, Cindy Grimsley, Rosa Alaniz, Carmen Castanon and Linda Padilla. Helping out and seeing a lot of playing time were roundballers Cindy Garcia, Debbie Madrid, Elizabeth Alderete, Lupe Quintana, Olga Carrasco and Josie Trujillo. Team manager was go-getter Norma Escobar.

The Eagle Cheer Crew Keeps the Spirit Alive in '77-'78

From the first yell to the last Eagle Hurrah, the '77-'78 edition of the Orange cheer squad was lending its enthusiasm and vocal chords to lead that natural Eagle spirit. Head cheerleader Elly Toti guided this year's squad and workouts started early this spring in preparation for a big year. Stephanie Faraidenburg, Lizzette Peterman, Myrna Quinones, and Celia Ortiz could all be seen sticking those booster messages on players' lockers every Friday morning before the game. Below left, Elly looks to her right and keeps a watchful eye on her squadmates at Canutillo Stadium. At the right of the page, Stephanie waves her megaphone and urges the Eagles on for a touchdown. At page left, Celia, Myrna and Lizette salute the flag during the National Anthem in the pre-assembly ceremony.

Spirit boosting took many forms this year as the cheerleaders involved themselves in many parts of school life. During Homecoming it was corsage sales, poster painting and Alumni hosting. In February the girls and their sponsor, Miss Lairmore, hosted the XROK D.J.'s in a faculty versus Radio announcer basketball game.

The B-Team cheer girls were very much part of the action too! Below (from left to right) B-yellers Rosemary Johnson, Sally Ruiz, Roseanne Schichtl, Annette Stroud and petite Tammy Sheets are up on their tippytoes at a midseason football assembly. At the bottom, on the right, cheer chicks Roseanne Schichtl and Rosemary Johnson await their turn to go on before the assembled student body. Mrs. Drake sponsored this year's B-Teamers.

'Eagles Call' Completes Fourteenth Year of Publication

Senior Ramon Alvarez and Maggie Apodaca shared this year's editorial chores in the production of Canutilo's monthly newspaper the "Eagles Call." Magie handled the features and Ramon assigned those ever-willing Staff members to breaking the school and community news stories. This year's Staff is most proud of their Homecoming edition that ran a big eight printed pages and featured glimpses through pictures and stories of the past fifteen years of C.H.S. history.

"Call" darkroom duties were ably handled this year by Senior Don Howard and Junior George Smith. Don is an up and coming jockey, but his riding chores didn't stop him from developing and printing those vital Eagle photos. Seniors Gabe Carrasco and Carolyn McDaniel toted their cameras everywhere this year and shot these necessary scenes and faces for both the "Call" and the "Conquistador." Ray Thompson handled the all-important ads, and Junior girls Carla Munger and Susan Robinson put together this year's Eagle scrapbook.

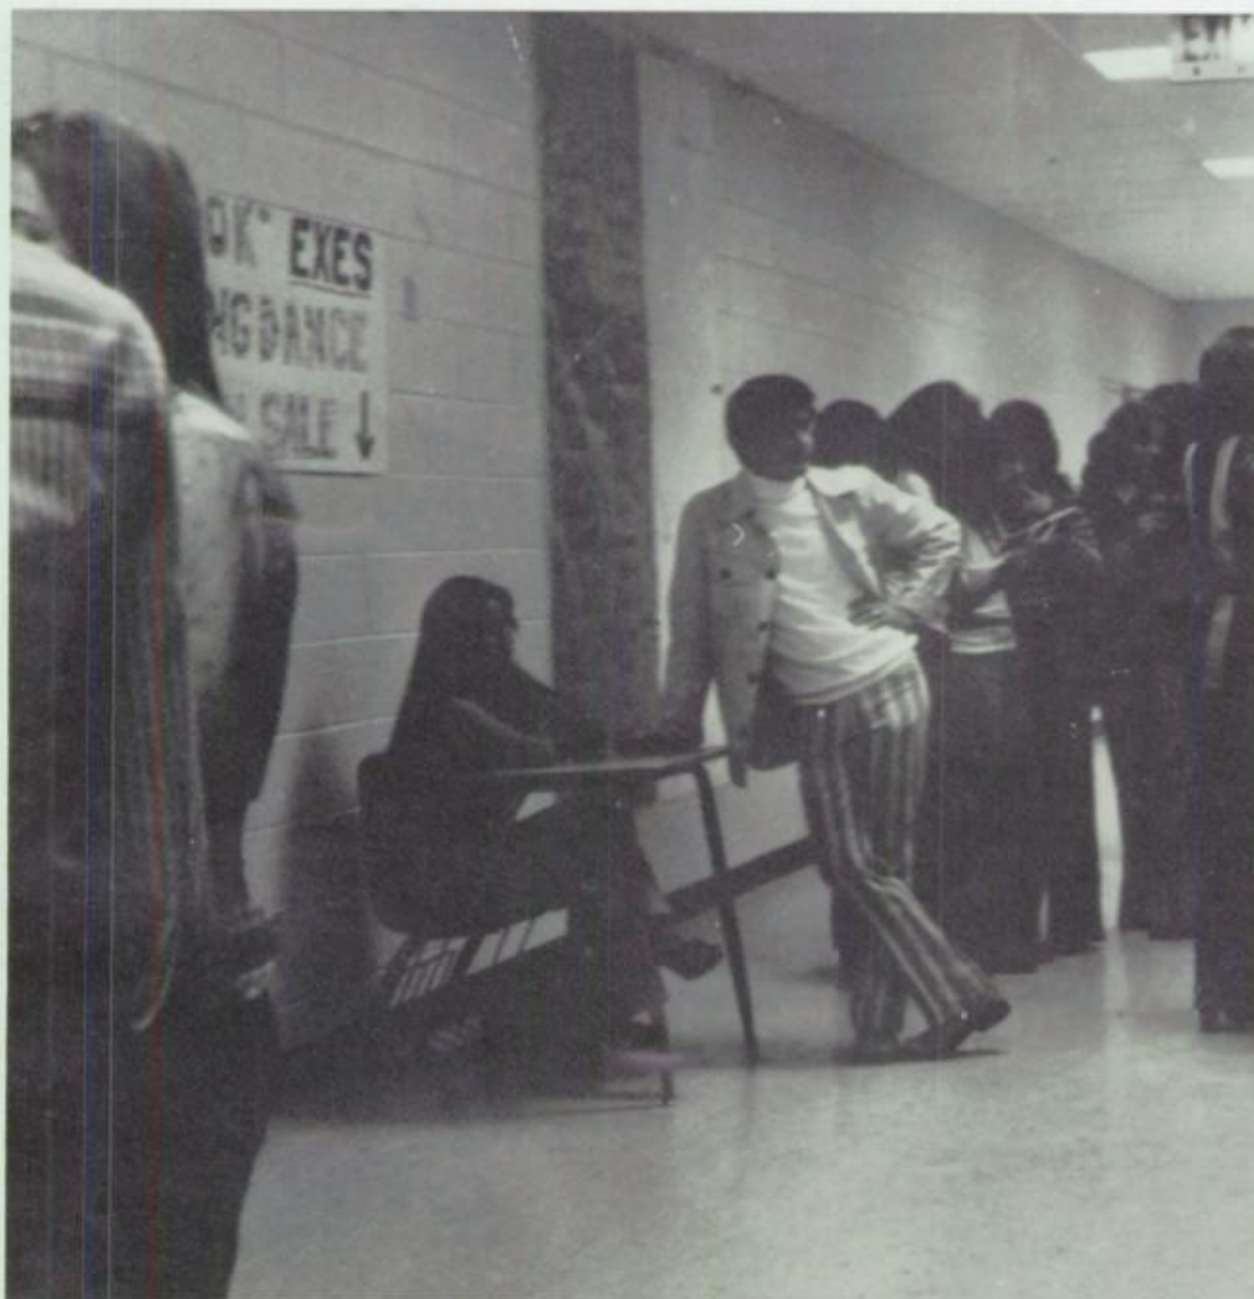

Student Council Works to Keep C.H.S. Spirit Moving

Student Council President Elias Munoz kept the Council hopping this year and Officers Sergio Coronado (V-P), Patti Brewster (Sec.), Carolina Munoz (Treas.) and Jose Damian (Parl.) joined in the effort to pull off an activity and action-packed year. Elias was heard by all Eagles every morning making those P.A. announcements and many Eagles anxiously awaited his run down of the up-coming noon-time cafeteria meal. Green chili rice?

The Friday football Pep assemblies were presided over by emcee Elias and the spirit he transmitted to the assembled Eagles kept us all in a winning frame of mind. Along with sponsor Mr. Prieto, (a long-time C.H.S. vet), the Council along with the class representatives — staged a never to be forgotten Homecoming bash that had an activity a night and involved more Exes in Canutillo Happenings than ever before. The Council also welcomed Timothy Shriver to Eagleland by hosting a Saturday breakfast for the visiting Kennedy nephew. The Council rounded out its '77-'78 chores by planning and producing the Spring Fiesta event and holding school-wide elections for next year's student government leaders.

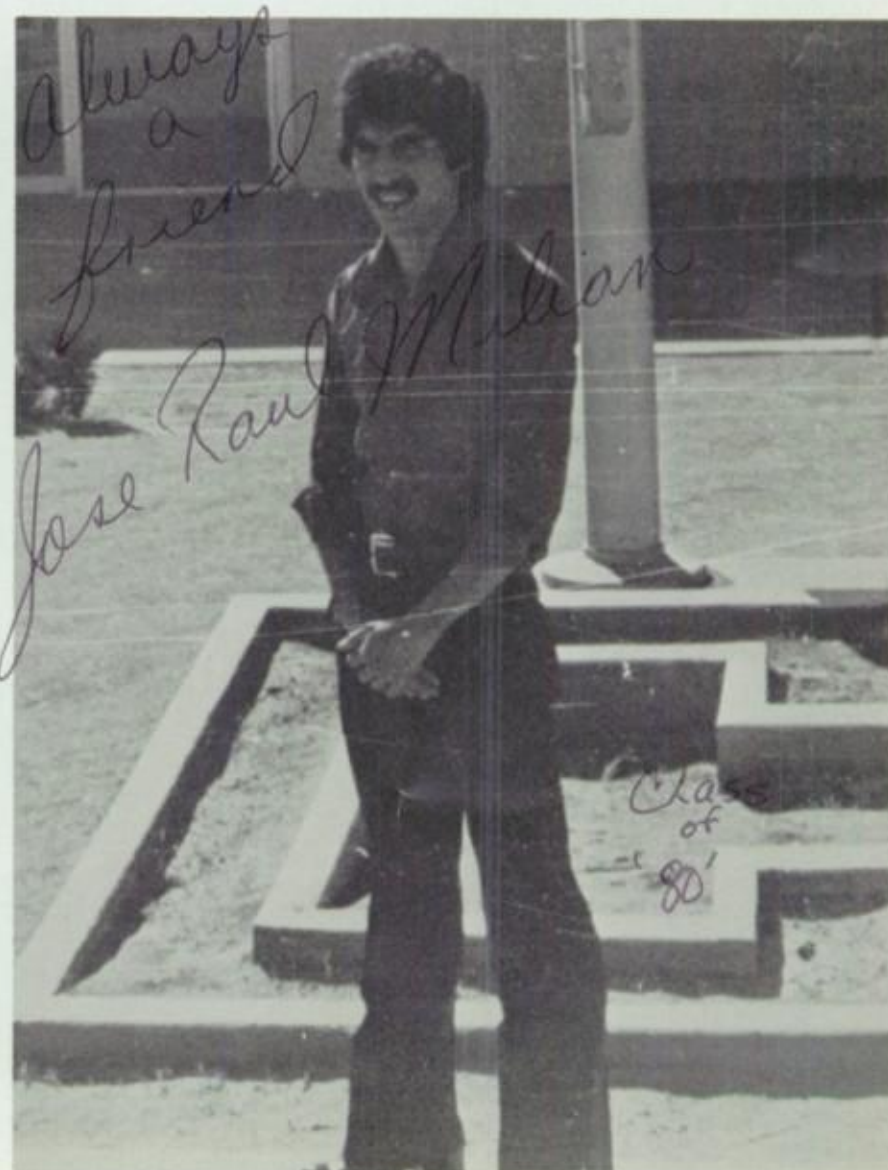

National Honor Society Puts C.H.S.'s Best Foot Forward

The Canutillo chapter of the National Honor Society is twenty five strong and includes Eagles who have achieved academic success, who have exhibited leadership qualities and who are proud to be C.H.S. students. Senior Kathy Patrick performed her presidential duties this year by presiding over the Junior High induction ceremonies and the late-spring High School ceremony which brings in new chapter members. Mr. Allen Boyd sponsored this year's chapter.

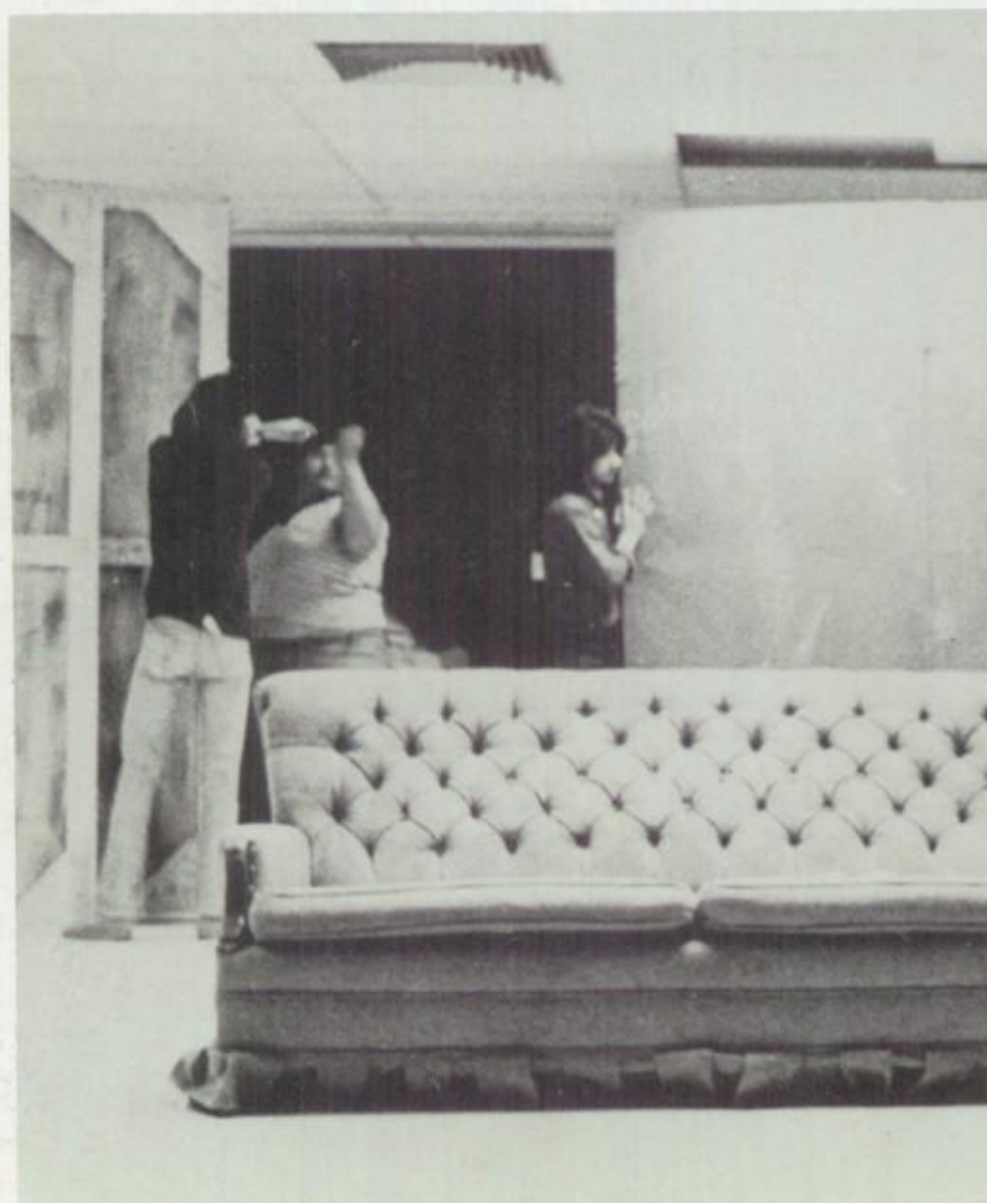

Future Homemakers Are Busy Baking, Walking and Serving

The red and white clad F.H.A.'ers clocked in another busy year of bake sales, walk-a-thons and carnation hawking. Leading the group this year is Senior Martha Morales who served as President and organizer. Sophs. Melanie Hudson, Sue Henson, Kathy Clouse and Rosemary Johnson shared Vice-Presidential duties and Bernadette Metz did the secretarial chores. Carmen Salinas took care of the money and Patsy Holderfield served as Parliamentarian. Lupe Estrada, Senior, was the chapter historian. Keeping it all together this year was sponsor, Mrs. Nick Weems. At page bottom are Sweetheart Rosemary Johnson and chapter Beau, Jose Milian.

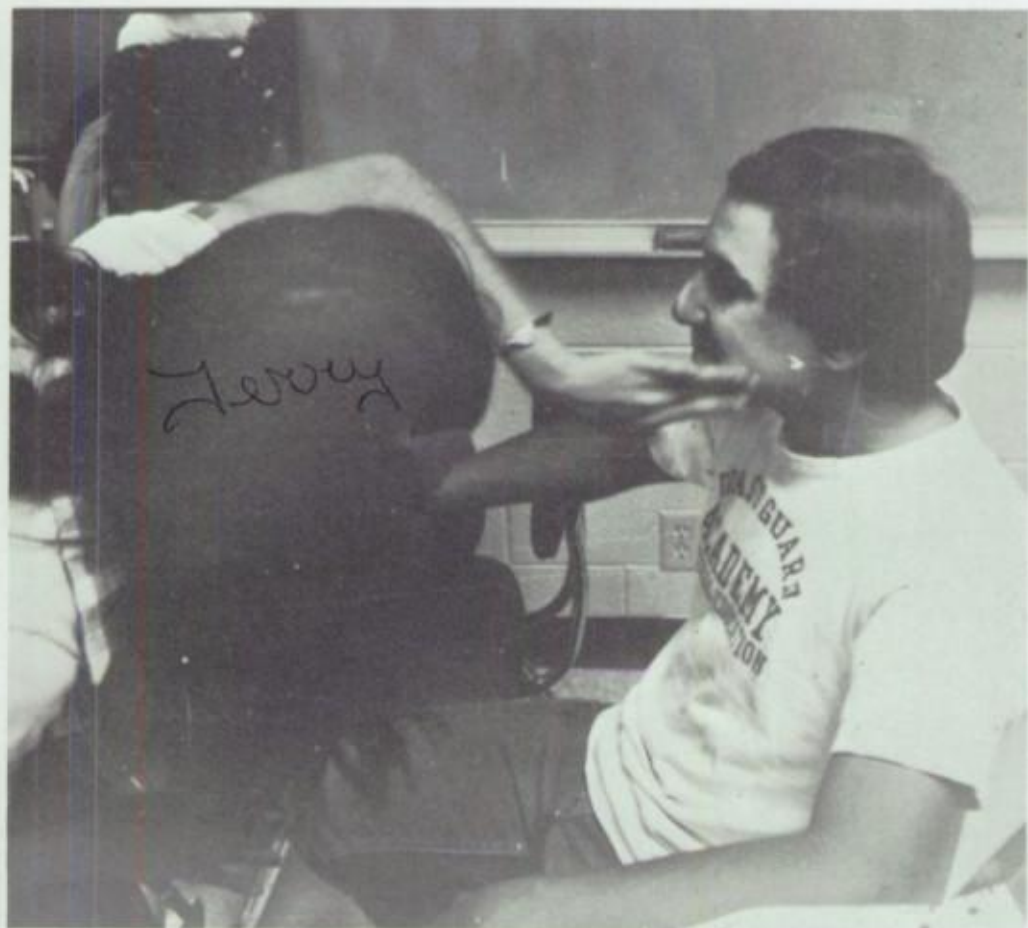

Players and Sayers Add Sparkle to This Year's Activities

Speech events and Drama productions continue to play a vital role in C.H.S. life, and this year's participants and their offerings added an extra spark of talent to the Canutillo Program. "Just What They Wanted" was the title of the Christmas offering and it starred Veronica Solis, Monica Solis, Terry Anderson, Terry Barraza and Larry Cordero. The two Drama classes got it together later in the year and presented two one-act plays, "Now That April is Here" and "Married at Sunrise."

Larry Cordero, top left, is getting a helping hand make-up wise just before the presentation of the Christmas play which was performed in conjunction with the C.H.S. Band Christmas Concert. Linda Marquez reads her lines in rehearsal for "Married at Sunrise." Terry Anderson, dressed in a night shirt and seated on the couch, looks on and listens for his cue. At bottom right, Armando Mejia, Lourdes Gomez and Larry Cordero are pictured in their production of "The All-American Girl." Speech activity this year included the Burges and Anthony tournaments and the end of year big one — the U.I.L. competition which was hosted by C.H.S. Mr. Mark Perkins sponsored the whole works again this year.

Future Farmers Get Their Act and Projects Together

The Canutillo F.F.A. Chapter worked to get the Ag. program on the road again after a protracted summer and early fall layoff. Mr. Al MacLaughlin and his crew put in a lot of time well-spent re-roofing the tool room, fixing the Meats lab and getting the Shop in order. Mrs. Linda Corley added a new dimension to the Ag. program by introducing Horticulture and plans for a greenhouse are in the works.

This year's Chapter President was Senior Alfredo Gallegos and he was assisted by fellow officers Jose Rivas (V.-P.), Peggy Sterling (Sec.), Dana Littleton (Treas.), and Sentinel Laura Duncan. Manny Resendez handled the Historian chores. This was the year of the rabbit for most F.F.A. exhibitors and C.H.S.'s eight entrants made a good showing at both the Dona Ana and El Paso livestock shows. Senior Sam Buckingham headed up the livestock judging team, who exercised their talents at the big El Paso show.

N.J.R.O.T.C. Cadets Bring Spit and Polish to the Eagle Image

Canutillo's Naval R.O.T.C. unit completed it's seventh year of operation this year and is looking forward to continued progress in the years to come. Commander Harris, who founded the unit, started the year off with the able assistance of four year Eagle vet, Chief Ortiz. In mid-year, Col. C.D. Foreman took command of the unit and Chief Cabazuela joined him. Below, Girl Drill teamers, under the command of Bonnie Mendoza step lively down Oregon street in the annual Veterans Day Parade.

Lt. David Hernandez headed up this year's ninety-six member Corp. and Ens. Carlos Hidalgo and Ens. Lizette Peterman performed Company Commander duties. Senior Dolores Retana shared leadership chores with David in her L. Cdr. position.

The Canutillo Naval Color Guard is seen at the bottom of the page leading the Eagle unit in the Veteran's Day Parade. Marching proudly from left to right are Cadets Laura Garcia, Fernando Monreal, David Lopez, Gilbert Luera, and Ola Moya.

The Orange Band Has Everybody Following the Eagle Beat

The 1977-'78 edition of the marching Eagle Band tooted its way through another busy and rousing year. Band members were early birds this year as the sounds of beating drums and stamping feet could be heard at early morning practice sessions. All this was in preparation for those half-time football events that the Marching Orange performs during the Fall season. Directly below, at left, Ms. Nellie Ponikvar raises the baton on the annual Christmas Concert.

Petite Junior flautist Carla Munger and sax player Alan Neely were chosen Band Sweetheart and Beau. (They both can be seen on the opposite page, bottom). In mid-November the McDonald's Corporation honored Patti Brewster and Camila Ramos with their All-American Band recognition Certificates; Patti and Camila are seen at page bottom receiving the award. Later in the year, the Eagle Band took part in the Veterans' Day Parade and showed the on lookers what orange and white pride is all about. In February, Christi Hambrick, flautist, and Drum Major/clarinet qualified for State competition after their good showing at Monohans.

The Eagle Choir Sings Its Way Through a Premier Year

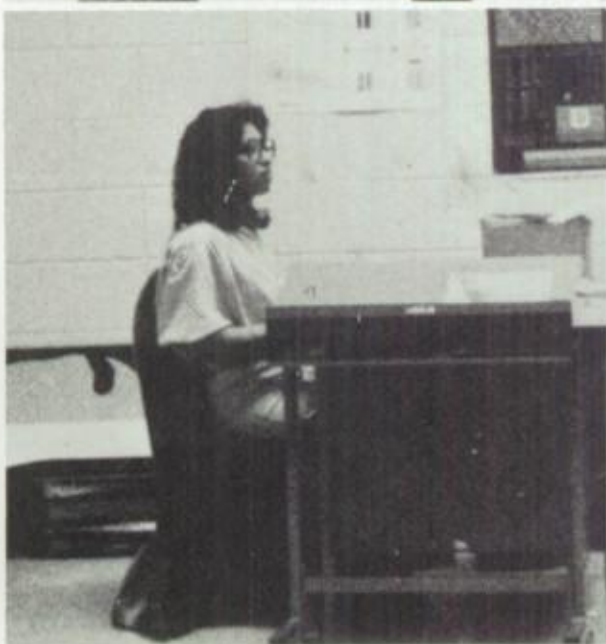

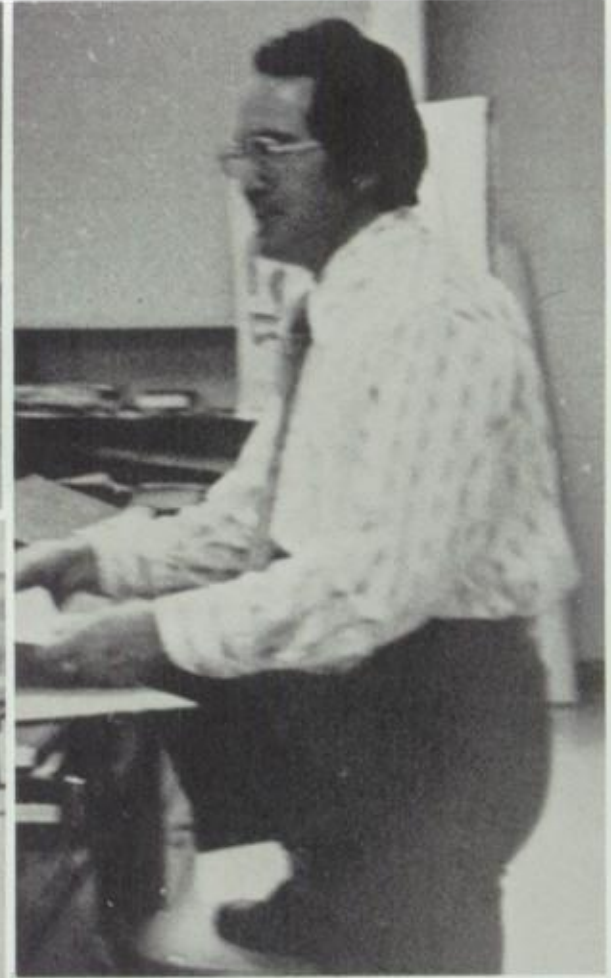

Eagle voices were raised in harmony this year as C.H.S. Choir made its debut during the Christmas season. The twenty six member strong choral group is the first such group to be organized and heard at Canutillo for the past eleven years. The orange and white choir robes were brought out and dusted off and put to good use at the Project Bravo Center in December, the school Christmas Concert, and the Spring Concert.

Pep Clubbers Cheer Eagles on to an Orange and White Year

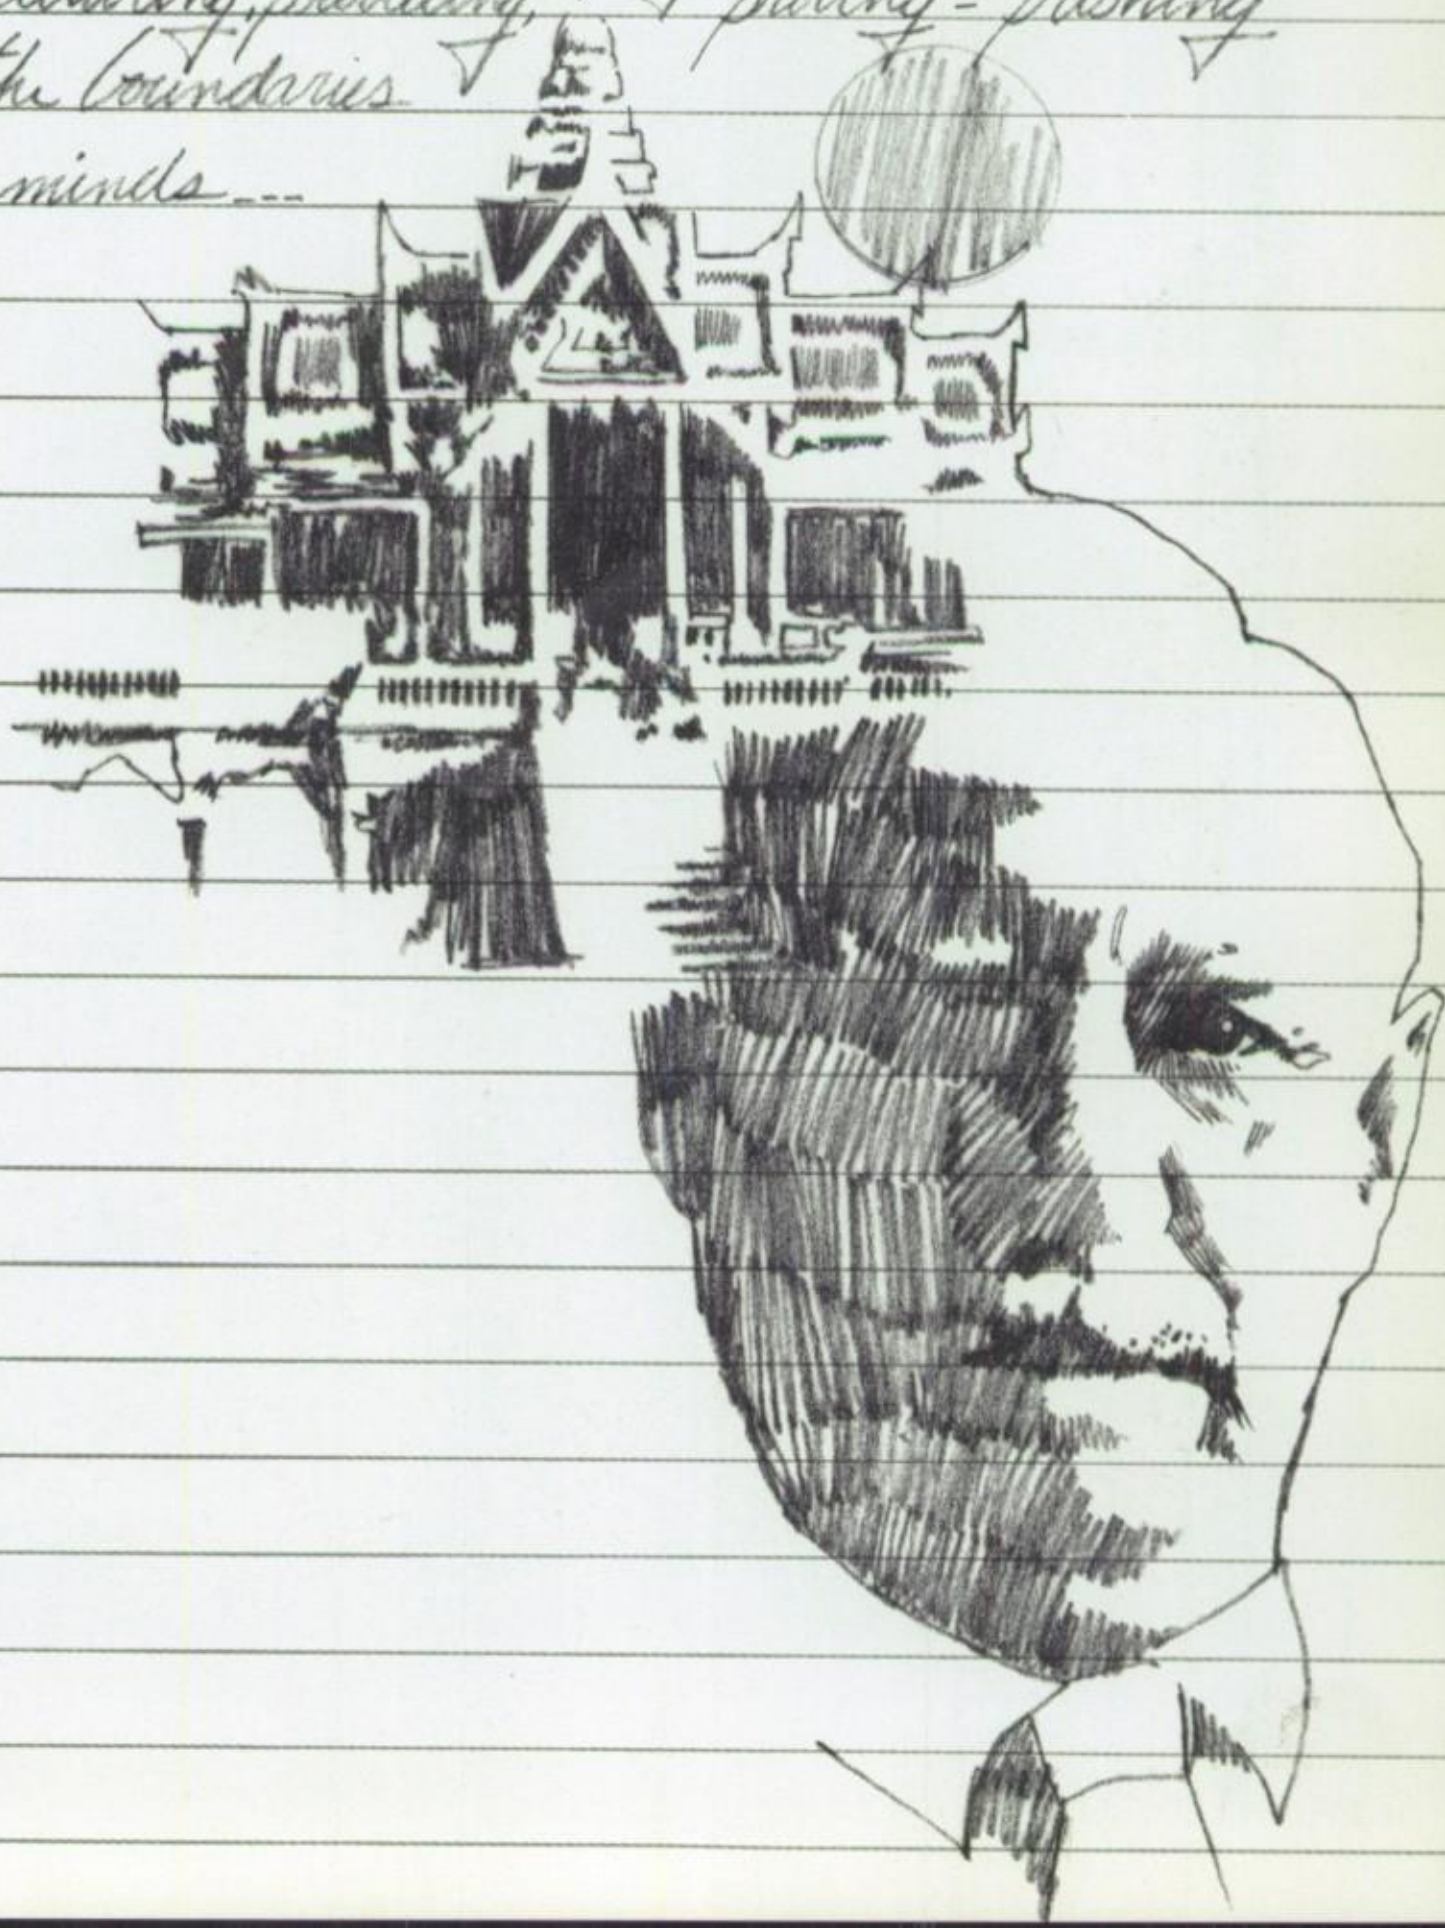

A smiling group of Eagle Pep Clubbers, below, huddle in front of sponsor Mr. McMahan and look as if they could break out in a cheer at any moment. Cheering was what it was all about for the Pep Club, as they attended each game the Eagles played in, sat as a group and helped the cheerleaders get their spirit point across. During the year, President Lupe Estrada (seated in the middle) also led her group in bake sales and other fund raising activities.

Lulu, what Wow, what a time to run out of things to say! We've known each other for years and we have had a lot of good times, but along with that we had some bad times, and we pulled through. Thank you for putting up with me, because if you hadn't, we wouldn't have had all those great times. We should never let anything or anybody come between us, because we are just to great of friends. Well, let's hope it never happens again.

I hope that all wishes and dreams come true for you because you really deserve it. Lulu, you have been a great friend and I really hope our friendship can keep being as good. God bless you always and may love, luck and success come your way.

Lourdes,
 It has been fun knowing you! I wish you all the luck in the world and success in all your goals. Take care & keep in touch!

I have been thinking you are kind & will be a great help to me. I want to see you &
see how things are.
I am your friend,
and hope to hear from you soon.

To a nice friend I have known for a long time. Thank you for your friendships throughout the years.
I hope we can always remain friends.
Good luck in the future and take care.

A very good friend

Loveless
 It has been great knowing you this year. And hope that the year to come may be as pleasant as this one. I hope to be friends with you for a very long time. I wish you ~~that~~ luck in your future years, and that you have a good ~~that~~ wife. I want to get to know you better next year, & that we become the best of friends.
 lots of years

LOURDES,

A ^{*}NICE friend I've known for lots of years and enjoyed being around with, and have "enemies". Well what can I say ^{but} that it's my last year and I know you'll cry for me. (not really)
Good Luck in the future and Best of luck.
God BLESS YOU

Founders, I really not have much to say but all say this: you have been a very nice friend for the past few years and I hope you'll send it for many more years to come. Take good care of yourself and good luck
with who ever you turn out to love.

Always,

Founders,
What can I say except that I hope we get to know each other better next year. It's not that late yet. May the best come your way. May love, laughter and success come your way. Good luck in the coming years. May God Bless you. Take care.

Lourdes,
Well, I really don't want to say the year is over because I've had so much fun and too many friends like you.
We had fun in Mr. Rubio's classes and also Biology (Vigil)
Remember Paul? Oh well.
I hope love, success, happiness comes your way because a girl as sweet as you deserves the best. I hope we can keep in touch this summer, 877-2202.
